

LINDA KUNDELL

PUBLIC SPEAKING: A CRASH COURSE

Homework Schedule

Week 1

Introduce yourself, deliver a preliminary reading from a provided text that will be distributed upon arrival. Think about topics for a 2-3 minute speech.

For Week 2

Present the topic for a 2-3 minute (maximum) speech. Bring in a video clip (optional) of a particularly good or bad speaker.

Come prepared to deliver the reading (can be read) that you selected in the first session.

For Week 3

Tell us the goal of your speech and how you are going to achieve it; read us the outline you have prepared.

Select a “discussion” topic. We will work on these in the next classes, time permitting.

Keep a journal of anytime you speak before a group (2 or more persons), how you feel before and during the presentation. Be prepared to discuss.

For Week 4

Present your speech, delivering it from a script you have written.
